

Add Content

To Do

1. Add a new piece of content into a section.
2. Use the Page with heading or Page without heading content template to create a basic page (the content template names might vary).

Choose a Template

Choose a template

--- Choose a template ---

Description of available templates

Sample Data

Code only	Template used for adding code to a page.
File download	Use this template to allow visitors to the website to download a file.
Flash Template	Use this template to embed a flash file on your page.
Gallery Image	Use this template to add images to the image gallery on your page.
Gallery Placeholder	Use this template to include an image gallery on your page.
Home Slideshow	Use this template to modify the home page slideshow.
News	Use this template to add a news article to your page.
Page with heading	Use this template to include general content with a heading.
Page without heading	Use this template to include general content without a heading.
Widget	Use this template to create a widget for use on the home page or right hand column.

Next Cancel

Enter content

Name *

Title *

Main body

Notes

1. Select Add Content from the section drop-down menu beside the section you wish to add content to.
2. Select the relevant content template.
3. Fill in the relevant elements. The mandatory ones are marked with *.
4. Preview the content.
5. Click Add to save.